Casselberry's New Sculpture

This fall, the City of Casselberry was gifted a remarkable sculpture by renowned Serbian artist, Miloš Šarić, who was recently recognized by the City Commission for his artistic contribution.

Sponsored by Herzing University in Casselberry and Friends of the Park, "The Belgrade Reader" sculpture is a cast iron work of art that promotes global literacy and international cooperation, and will forever make its home just outside Casselberry City Hall.

With the Casselberry Art House, regular City Hall art exhibits, "The Belgrade Reader" sculpture and other recent additions to the Lake Concord Sculpture Garden, Casselberry continues to establish itself as one of Seminole County's leaders in the fine arts.

New Art House Instructor!

The Art House Welcomes Bert Bogdany

The Art House was thrilled when Bert Bogdany agreed to bring his talents to Casselberry to boost the Art House Ceramics program to new heights.

Bert, a native-born Seminole County artist, has taught ceramics at Seminole State College since 1999, after earning his BFA in Ceramics, and later his Master's from the University of Central Florida.

Bert's artistic expertise, as well as his easygoing, yet methodical educational approach, has made his classes some of the most popular at the Art House.

Bert offers two Ceramics classes at the Art House, Mondays or Wednesdays at 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. Students can enroll online at www.casselberry.org.
